Critical Intelligence Problems Committee

CIPCM-03
27 June 1983

MEMORANDUM FOR: Critical Intelligence Problems Committee (CIPC)

25X1

FROM:

Executive Secretary

SUBJECT: Minutes of the Third CIPC Meeting, 20 June 1983
(1000-1250 Hours)

25X1

Minutes of the Meeting

The Chairman, [] convened the meeting by welcoming those who were attending for the first time: Messrs. [] DIA; Thomas DuHadway, FBI; and RADM N. C. Venzke, U. S. Coast Guard. The Chairman stated that BGEN Harry Soyster, U. S. Army, had been delayed but was expected momentarily. []

The Chairman informed the Committee that the very full agenda was divided into three sections: (1) Intelligence Support to the Arms Control Process, (2) Report on the Narcotics Study, and (3) Status Report on the Cruise Missile Study. [] Chief, Arms Control Intelligence Staff (ACIS), CIA, and a member of other related arms control committees and working groups, had been invited to brief the committee on section one of the agenda because of interest in and the timeliness of his subject. The Chairman noted that arms control verification of the Arms Control Treaty is emerging as a critical priority issue in Congress and throughout the Community. []

Report on the Narcotics Study

The Chairman introduced this portion by noting the Working Group's need for guidance from the CIPC on the narcotics study. He reminded the Members that the EPIC trip report will soon be circulated. He drew attention to the CIA/DDI Narcotics Primer as an important document on the subject and to a transcript, held by the Executive Secretary, of the Vice President's speech on 18 June 1983. He also highlighted a 13 June GAO report in terms of its recommended actions and reminded the Members that the Narcotics Study TOR speaks of efforts on intelligence in source countries, interdiction and intelligence coordination in domestic law enforcement. [] CIPC Staff, and [] IC Staff. [] and [] spoke on the trip reports and the SAFE computer availability, respectively. []

25X1

In drawing this session to a close, [] conclusively focussed on these recommendations: (1) Greater coordination between the Narcotics Working Group and the budget process machinery, and (2) more direct collaboration with and tasking of the Community's collection and exploitation committees. The Committee recommended that the Working Group proceed along these lines toward the completion of substantive proposals. []
